THREE WISCONSIN GRIDIRON STARS

Who face Fate and the final test
With heads up, to the closing blow;
Who'd rather charge on than retreat,
and yet who hold the game too high
To have it wrecked by a defeat Or have it shadowed by a sigh,

in valiant hope that we will win.
But if, by chance, we come to fall,
We hold no failure as a sin.
But rather, with a stouter heart
That sees no reason to despond.
We gather for another start
Against the day that walts beyond.

To know the prize is not our creed: For we have found rewards will walt Somewhere, some time, above our need.

So long as we can face our fate
With unbowed head, without a tear,
Regardless of the goal at stake,
With souls that have forgotten fear
And hearts that neaven couldn't break.
